DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on July 26, 2005 has been entered.

Priority

2. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority based on an application filed in the United Kingdom on May 24, 2000. It is noted, however, that applicant has not filed a certified copy of the GB 0012445.3 application as required by 35 U.S.C. 119(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 31-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Glick et al., U.S. Publication Number 2002/0051540 A1 (hereinafter Glick).

Regarding claims 31 and 33, Glick teaches a system and a control method for enabling equipment to decrypt encrypted target data stored on a removable data carrier or in a received data file (see paragraph 0017, lines 1-17, paragraph 0118, lines 1-13 and paragraph 0120, lines 15-22), the method comprising: sending identity information identifying said target data from the equipment to a remote service system (see paragraph 0059, lines 1-21); using the identity information at the service system to retrieve authorized-location data that is associated with the target data and represents a predetermined authorized location or locality for decrypting the target data (see paragraph 0058, lines 1-10, paragraph 0059, lines 1-21 and paragraph 0061, lines 13-20); obtaining at the service system current-location data representing the current location of the equipment as determined by a location-determining system separate from said equipment (see paragraph 0061, lines 8-13 and paragraph 0066, lines 1-18); comparing at the service system, the current-location data with the authorized-location data and upon this comparison indicating that the equipment is currently located in said authorized location or locality (see paragraph 0061, lines 8-20), and subject to any other conditions set to be tested at the service system being satisfied, returning a decryption key for the identified target data to said equipment (see paragraph 0086, lines 1-12 and paragraph 0087, 15-21); and at said equipment, using the decryption key to decrypt the encrypted target data (see paragraph 0087, lines 1-26).

Regarding claims 32 and 34, Glick teaches all the limitations of claims 31 and 33. In addition, Glick teaches a system and method, wherein the equipment communicates with the service system by a communications infrastructure comprising a cellular radio network (see paragraph 0120, lines 1-15), the location determining system using signals associated with the cellular radio network to determine the location of the equipment (see paragraph 0066, lines 1-18), and the remote service system obtaining said current-location data from the location determining system either directly or via the equipment (see paragraph 0061, lines 8-20 and paragraph 0066, lines 1-18).

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Denning et al., U.S. Publication Number 2002/0136407 A1 discloses system and method for delivering encrypted information in a communication network using location identity and key tables.

Murphy, U.S. Patent Number 6,317,500 discloses method and apparatus for location-sensitive decryption of an encrypted signal.

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Anthony S. Addy whose telephone number is 571-272-7795. The examiner can normally be reached on Mon-Thur 8:00am-6:30pm.
